1. What classes in various art forms are required as a regular part of the curriculum? What percentage of your students takes these art classes?

2. Please list all of the workshops, in-school performances, artist residencies, and out-of-schools arts experiences your school has provided for students during school year 2010-11. Include which grade levels were serviced (e.g., Honolulu Theatre for Youth 10 day residency: Grades 2, 3; Taiko Drum performance: whole school assembly).

3. Please list performances your students have presented and/or art shows they have exhibited in during the school year 2010-11.

4. What professional development in the arts have your teachers participated in during the past year? (e.g. Lisa Smith, Grade 4, Integrating Dance & Science, Summer 2011)

5. Give examples of teachers who are integrating the arts across the curriculum. Arts integration involves active, rigorous instruction; standards in both the art and another subject are covered in the lesson as well as assessment and reflection in both. An example is using the drama strategy of tableau to understand the civil rights movement.

6. How are student art and the arts in general, in evidence, on your campus?

7. How do the parents and administration support the arts at your school?

8. Please include at least one example from each of the following:

- STUDENT'S STATEMENT: "We think our school is eligible for an Alliance Arts Excellence Award because..."
- TEACHER'S STATEMENT: "Our school excels in the arts in the following ways..."
- PRINCIPAL'S STATEMENT: "Our school excels in the arts in the following ways..."
